DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-8 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Essentially, the arguments presented by applicant are persuasive. There is no suggestion in Jones that standard playing cards, with suits, are used in its diceless craps game. Rather, Jones recites in column 1, lines 52-56:

Another way of generating a decision is to use two decks of cards, each deck having six cards, each card marked with a separate, distinct number from one to six, inclusive (representing the numbers of dots on the sides of a die).

With this in mind, there is no suggestion or motivation to combine the teachings of Jones and Potter, because Potter is directed to a game played with cards having suits. Also, as noted by applicant, Potter recites a payoff for a suited pair of cards as a side bet which is incidental to the base game; the present invention is directed to different payoffs which may be made during the same game. Claim 1 recites adding the numerical values of the cards to determine a craps roll if the cards are not suited; there is no suggestion of this step in the combined teachings of Jones and Potter. As a result, claim 1, and all claims dependent therefrom, are allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
